

Invitation to Undertake Tenure Review
Section 27 Crown Pastoral Land Act

..... (state name of holder of pastoral lease, and where more than one, insert the names of all holders) invites the Commissioner of Crown Lands to undertake a tenure review of all the land for the time being held under pastoral lease no (the pastoral lease) pursuant to section 27 of the Crown Pastoral Land Act.

In making this invitation I/we understand that the Commissioner of Crown Lands:

- is not obliged to undertake tenure review of the pastoral lease, but will decide whether to undertake tenure review with regard to the matters set out in section 32 of the Crown Pastoral Land Act; and
- may discontinue or withdraw from a tenure review (either temporarily or permanently) at any time (including where the Commissioner considers that insufficient funds will be obtained to continue or complete the review).

Signed by
	(signature)	(name of signatory and basis of signing)

	(signature)	(name of signatory and basis of signing)

	(signature)	(name of signatory and basis of signing)

	(signature)	(name of signatory and basis of signing)

	(signature)	(name of signatory and basis of signing)
	as holder(s) of the pastoral lease

Dated

Note for holders who are companies
When a company is inviting the Commissioner to undertake tenure review, the invitation should be signed by two directors or otherwise in accordance with the constitution of the company. Those signing the invitation should write in next to their signature the basis on which they are signing ie as director.

Please send completed invite to Crown Property Management, LINZ, Private Bag 4721, CHRISTCHURCH