CHRISTCHURCH PROCESSING CENTRE RECORDS ON THE MOVE

Christchurch Processing Centre will be relocating to new premises in November 2010.

Before this occurs we are moving most of the records currently in the LINZ Christchurch reading room to Archives New Zealand. This means there will be limited access to records during the main move periods.

Please ensure you plan any research around the dates below.

Moving records from Christchurch Processing Centre to Archives New Zealand

All Deeds Registers, Roll-plans and many other historical records for Canterbury, Nelson, Marlborough and Westland will be transferred to Archives New Zealand, 90 Peterborough Street, Christchurch.

Roll Plans only

21 to 25 June 2010	Access may be limited as roll-plans are prepared for moving
28 June to 2 July 2010	Roll-plans are inaccessible as they are being moved
5 July 2010	Roll-plans moved to Archives New Zealand are available on request

All historical Deeds records (including Deeds Registers and Deeds Indexes) for Canterbury, Nelson, Marlborough and Westland

19 July to 6 August 2010	Access may be limited as records are prepared for moving
9 to 20 August 2010	Records are inaccessible as they are being moved
23 August 2010	Deeds Registers and Indexes (Canterbury Land district only) are available for browsing in Archives New Zealand's Christchurch Register Room. All other records moved to Archives are available on request

All Surveyors Field books and Traverse records for Canterbury, Nelson, Marlborough and Westland will be retained by the LINZ Christchurch Processing Centre.

If you need access to records urgently due to an emergency within these closure periods, we will do our best to accommodate this.
