Landbanking Application Information

Every application must include supporting information to be completed below. The information you supply must provide clear reasons why you wish to have this particular property included in a regional landbank. These reasons will relate to the cultural or historical importance of the property or its future use, or establish that the specific features of the property mean that it is unique and can not be replaced by another.

If the boxes below do not allow enough space for your application information, please attach any additional information to this form.

Note that a decision to landbank this property will be based partly on your reasons – refer to the booklet on Information for Applicants, which explains the criteria upon which all applications will be assessed.
