Dear Sir

RE: TENURE REVIEW – WOODBANK (HEWITT)

We act for Margot Joan Hewitt, the holder of the special lease in respect of the property known as "Woodbank". Please note Mrs Hewitt is registered as lessee under her maiden name, Margot Joan Atkinson.

The Commissioner has recently submitted a substantive proposal. The substantive proposal has been accepted by Mrs Hewitt. One executed copy of the document is returned duly signed.

Clause 18 imposes an obligation on Mrs Hewitt to procure a solicitors certificate in a form satisfactory to the Commissioner. We have made various amendments to the draft solicitors certificate set out at Appendix 2. Our solicitors certificate is enclosed.

Clause 9 requires Mrs Hewitt to obtain the written consent to her acceptance of the substantive proposal from all persons having an interest in the land. A search copy of the title reveals there is no mortgagee or other entity with a registered interest in the land. The only unregistered interest in the land of which we have knowledge is the right of way easement to be created under the Conservation Act 1987 which is referred to in the substantive proposal. In the circumstances we have assumed consent is not required. Please confirm.

Kindly commence the implementation of the substantive proposal.

Yours faithfully,
HAROLD SMITH & DALLISON

J. V. DALLISON.
