Notes for Land Transfer Tax Statement

When do you need to complete this statement?

You need to complete this statement if you are a transferor (seller) or transferee (buyer) in a transfer of a property (this includes freehold or leasehold estates, life estates, stratum estates, licences to occupy or any other specified estate in land as defined in section 77(1) of the Land Transfer Act 2017).

You do not need to complete the form if the transfer relates to Māori Land as defined by Te Ture Whenua Māori Act 1993, or if the transfer is a transfer of property by the Crown under a Treaty Settlement Act that expressly authorises the Crown to transfer the fee simple and to sign a transfer instrument. The information required in this statement is prescribed by section 79 of the Land Transfer Act 2017.

How to complete the statement

- If you are completing this statement as a Trustee, see Appendix A
- If you are completing this statement as a nominee for a nominator, see Appendix B

Your answers to these questions must be correct at the date of the statement.

Property details

- 1. Record of title reference can be found in the sale and purchase agreement, or your lawyer or conveyancer will be able to provide this.
  - 2. Instrument Number is the number allocated by LINZ for lodgement of the transfer. If entered it should include the sequence number, e.g. 123456.1
- 3A Home means a dwelling mainly used as a residence e.g. house, apartment, unit, whether tenanted, occupied or not
- 3B Main home transfer

Only property held by individuals or in a trust can be the subject of a "main home transfer" for the purpose of the Land Transfer Tax Statement. If neither of these apply to you please indicate that the transfer is not a "main home transfer", otherwise please follow the guidance below.

Inland Revenue uses this information to differentiate the transfer of a main home from other transfers.

"Main home transfer" is defined as per the transitional provisions in Part 3 of Schedule 1 of the Land Transfer Act 2017.

For Sellers, please indicate that the transfer is a “main home transfer” if either of the following apply:

- (a) You (the transferor) have resided in the home for more than 50% of the period during which you have owned the land; or
- (b) You (the transferor) are a trustee, and a beneficiary of the trust has resided in the home for more than 50% of the period that the trust has owned the land.

For Buyers, please indicate that the transfer is a “main home transfer” if either of the following apply:

- (a) You (the transferee) intend to reside in the home; or
- (b) You (the transferee) are a trustee, and a beneficiary of the trust intends to reside in the home.

Inland Revenue uses this information to differentiate the transfer of a ‘main home’ from other property transfers. You can find information about the taxation of property transactions on Inland Revenue’s website: www.ird.govt.nz/property

Seller / Buyer identity

If there is more than one transferor (seller) or transferee (buyer), each person will need to complete their own tax statement. This also applies to people who are acting as a trustee of a trust, as a partner in a partnership or as an executor or administrator of a deceased estate.

- 4. Transferor (seller) is the person/entity who is selling or disposing of a property and Transferee (buyer) is the person/entity who is buying or acquiring a property.
- 5. Name of person or entity - For an individual, enter the full name with first name/s then the last name (family name or surname) exactly as it appears or will appear on the title. For an entity (non-individual/corporate), enter the registered name exactly as it appears or will appear on the title.

Where a person is acting on behalf of a person or entity or in a different capacity:

- in the capacity of the trustee of the trust – enter the name of the trustee exactly as it appears or will appear on the title. A separate tax statement is required for each individual trustee.
- as a nominee – enter the name of the nominee as it appears or will appear on the title at question 5 and the name of the nominator at question 7. A separate tax statement is required for each individual nominator, if more than one.
- under a power of attorney – enter the name of the person who granted the power of attorney exactly as it appears or will appear on the title. A separate tax statement is required for each individual donor of a power of attorney, if more than one.
- in the capacity of a partner in a partnership – enter the name of the partnership if it is a registered entity (i.e. limited partnership). Otherwise, it should be the name of the individual. A separate tax statement is required for each individual partner.
- As an executor or an administrator of a deceased estate – enter the name of the executor or administrator as it appears or will appear on the title. A separate tax statement is required for each individual executor or administrator.
- on behalf of a Body Corporate under the Unit Titles Act 2010 – enter Body Corporate and the number (e.g. Body Corporate 12345).

For mortgagee, rating, and court-ordered sales, the name of the mortgagee/bank, local authority or court-ordered seller should be recorded in question 5 as the transferor.

6. Select "person" if you are representing yourself, yourself as a trustee, yourself as a partner in a partnership, yourself as an executor or administrator of a deceased estate, or another person as their attorney.

Select "entity" if you are representing a company, a company as a trustee, a corporate entity (body corporate, incorporated society, etc.), a public or local government authority, an entity as its attorney, or other non-individual.

Select "nominator" if you are a nominee acting for a nominator - note that this only applies where you will be holding the property on behalf of another person, and this does not apply where, for example, a person nominates their family trust to complete the purchase of a property. For the definition of nominee please refer to Section YB21 of the Income Tax Act 2007.

7. If you are acting as a nominee for a nominator, enter the name of your nominator in the space provided. If you are acting for multiple nominators, enter one name in question 7 and answer all subsequent questions for that nominator. A separate tax statement will need to be completed for each of the remaining nominators. Refer to Appendix B for more information.
8. If you are an entity, you do not need to answer questions 9-13. If you are an individual, you must complete questions 9,10 and, where relevant, question 13.
9. Select the box that applies to you OR if you are acting for a nominator, select the box that applies to the nominator. You can only select one box for this question.
10. Select the boxes that apply to any members of your immediate family. You may select as many boxes as necessary. If you are acting for a nominator, select the box or boxes that apply to the nominator's immediate family.
11. Question 11 helps you assess whether you need to answer question 13.
12. Question 12 helps you assess whether you need to answer question 13.
13. If you are a transferee/buyer and you or a member of your immediate family holds a work or student visa, then you must answer question 13. Otherwise, you do not need to answer question 13.

Tax Details

- 14. If acting as a Trustee or Nominee please refer to Appendices A and B at the end of these notes
- 15. You may claim that your transfer is a non-notifiable transfer and that as a result you do not need to provide tax details if:
- B. you are disposing of the land as part of a mortgagee sale, rating sale under the Local Government (Rating) Act 2002, a court ordered sale or statute ordered sale.
  - C. you are acting as a transferor or transferee on behalf of a public authority as defined in the Land Transfer (Land Information and Offshore Persons Information) Exemption Regulations 2015 (e.g. Her Majesty the Queen)
  - D. you are acting as a transferor or transferee on behalf of a local authority as defined in the Income Tax Act 2007
  - E. you are acting as executor or administrator for a deceased person's estate and the transferee is beneficially entitled to receive the property under the will or the rules governing intestacy.

If applicable, enter the most appropriate code (i.e. B, C, D or E from the above list) in question 15.

- 16. If you claimed a non-notifiable reason, you do not need to answer questions 17-19. If you did not claim a non-notifiable reason, complete questions 17 and 18 and question 19 if applicable.

- 17. Enter the applicable New Zealand IRD Number,—
- for a trust – use the trust's IRD number not the trustees' IRD number.
  - for a partnership – use the partnerships IRD number not the partners' IRD number.
  - for an estate – use the estate's IRD number not the executors' or administrators' IRD number.
  - if acting as a nominee – use the IRD number of the person who made the nomination
  - if acting under a power of attorney - use the IRD number of the person who granted the power of attorney
  - if acting on behalf of a body corporate under the Unit Titles Act 2010 – use the Body Corporate's IRD number
  - if acting on behalf of an unincorporated body – use the unincorporated body's IRD number

If you do not have a New Zealand IRD number, you will need to get one before your land transfer can be registered. Go to www.ird.govt.nz to find out how to do this.

- 18. Are you a tax resident in another jurisdiction/country? You need to answer yes to this question if you are currently a tax resident in another jurisdiction under the tax laws of that jurisdiction. Generally you are a tax resident of another jurisdiction if you need to file an income tax return in that jurisdiction for your world-wide income (rather than just for income that has a source in that country). You need to answer yes to this question even if, under a double tax agreement, you would not be treated as tax resident in that country.

If you are not sure if you are a current tax resident of another country/jurisdiction, you will need to contact that tax authority to confirm.

19. Country name and code If you are a tax resident in another country/jurisdiction other than New Zealand you need to give us that country's name and country code. You can find the country code on the Inland Revenue website www.ird.govt.nz (search keywords: country code).

Taxpayer identification number Provide your taxpayer identification number in that country.

If you are a current tax resident in more than one country/jurisdiction, other than New Zealand, you will need to provide the country name, code and IRD number equivalent for the second and subsequent countries/jurisdiction and attach to this statement.

Signature

20. Each transferor (seller) and transferee (buyer) involved in the property transfer must sign their own tax statement.

If signing as an authorised person please include the name of the person signing and the title of position held e.g. power of attorney, company director, executive office holder.

Offence

A person commits an offence under section 81(1) of the Land Transfer Act 2017 if they give a tax statement to a certifier or to Land Information New Zealand that, to the person's knowledge or with intent to deceive, contains false or misleading tax information.

Section 81(2) of the Land Transfer Act 2017, specifies the penalties for giving false or misleading information.

Privacy

Land Information New Zealand collects the information in this tax statement form for tax compliance purposes as required by section 78 of the Land Transfer Act 2017.

The Chief Executive of LINZ is required to supply the tax information to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue in accordance with section 82 of the Land Transfer Act 2017. This information may be disclosed to authorised persons in accordance with section 86 of the Land Transfer Act 2017.

If there is an error or omission in the information you have provided in a Tax Statement you may correct it in accordance with section 80 of the Land Transfer Act 2017.

For more information see our Privacy statement for conveyancing transactions lodged under the Land Transfer Act 2017.

Appendix A – Acting as a Trustee

If you are acting as a trustee of a trust, you must complete a tax statement for yourself in your capacity as a trustee. Each other trustee must complete a separate tax statement. You cannot submit one tax statement for the trust.

If the land being transferred has a home on it, you must indicate whether or not the transfer is a “main home transfer” at question 3B.

At question 5, you must record your full name, not the name of the trust. This is because the Land Transfer Act prohibits any reference to trusts on the register.

You should complete questions 9 and 10 with reference to your own and your immediate family’s citizenship and visa details.

You will need to insert the trust’s IRD number in question 17. Trusts are allocated IRD numbers independently of the trustees in their personal capacity. When a trust transfers property, it is the trust’s IRD number that is needed.

Some trusts have no taxable income and may not have an IRD number. These trusts will still need to obtain an IRD number to complete a purchase, sale or transfer of property.

This tax information will not form part of the land transfer register. Non-disclosure of trusts on the register is a separate issue governed by other provisions of the Land Transfer Act, which have not changed under the tax statement regime.

Appendix B – Acting as a Nominee

The nominee’s name as transferor or transferee should be entered at question 5 while the name of one of the nominators should be entered at question 7. The remaining questions should be completed using the nominator’s information.

If a transferor or transferee is acting on behalf of multiple nominators, a tax statement is required for each nominator.

When there are multiple nominators for one nominee, your lawyer or conveyancer will record the details of one of the nominators against the transfer, because the land transfer system only has provision for recording one nominator for each transferor or transferee. They are however required to retain a copy of every tax statement they receive, so information on the other nominators will still be accessible on request from Land Information New Zealand or Inland Revenue.

When completing the tax statement, be aware that the terminology used in relation to 'nominee' differs from that normally used in conveyancing. For the tax statement, the 'nominee' is defined in section YB21 of the Income Tax Act 2007 and is the person who does something, or holds something, on behalf of someone else (the 'nominator'). This definition does not apply where the purchaser in an Agreement for Sale and Purchase nominates another person or entity (e.g. a family trust or a company) to complete the purchase with the intention that that person or entity will own the property for themselves.
