Hi again [s 9(2)(a)]

Here is the text for the email to LDS customers on Tuesday – following the successful go live of the LDS new UI.

Can you please mock this up for me in the template and send it through for me to double check:

LINZ Data Service new user interface released

Kia ora

The LINZ Data Service (LDS) has now been switched to a new user interface.

Redesigned and reimagined, the new user interface is highly customisable to help you work the way you want.

What you need to do

Nothing! Visit data.linz.govt.nz and you'll be presented with the new user interface.

Here are the four key concepts behind the new user interface that we think you'll love the most...

- Curate your own list of favourite datasets
- Create multiple map views
- Flexible workflows, e.g. cropping on export
- Support for mobile devices

Getting started

Explore data.linz.govt.nz for yourself – its new features and workflows.
